

WHEREAS, The schools represent the best efforts of the community, the state, and the nation to improve the quality of life; and,

WHEREAS, Defining the schools' goals and evaluating their results are the responsibilities of an informed and involved citizenry; and,

WHEREAS, There is a widespread need for better communication and more cooperative relationships between professional educators and the community:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby designate the week of October 27 - November 2, 1974, to be American Education Week and do urge all citizens to reaffirm their commitment to improving education on all levels and translate that commitment into action by visiting local schools and finding out how they personally can be involved.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 21st day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Four

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Jean Johnson, Assistant
LOREN B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
